Cookies on KTC Edibles site

When you visit the KTC Edibles website, if your browser is using the standard settings and it is accepting cookies, you are giving consent for cookies on the KTC Edibles site to be stored on your computer. If you do not wish for this to happen, you can disable them in the settings of your browser.

What are cookies?

The KTC Edibles website uses cookies. Cookies are small, text-only strings of data which store information on the hard drive of your local computer or mobile device. Some cookies store data just for the time you are on the site. These are called session cookies and are not stored on your computer after you have left the site.

Most internet browsers are pre-set to accept cookies but if you prefer not to receive cookies, you can adjust your browser to refuse cookies, or to warn you when they are being used. Visit <http://www.aboutcookies.org> for more information on managing cookies.

Google Analytics:

We use Google Analytics to collect information about site usage and performance. This helps us better understand our users and their needs so that we can continue to improve the services we provide. We also use this information to report to funders such as the Department for Business, Energy & Industrial Strategy (BEIS). The analytics cookies collect information such as the number of visits to the site, pages visited and international traffic. This information is anonymous and cannot be used to identify you personally.
